

We got on the no call list because we were sick of getting anywhere from 5 -10 calls per day. If we want someone's services we will call them. Please do NOT lighten the restrictions because these calls will begin again so there would be no sense in having a no call list.